WeldWAITS Presentation Agreement

WeldWAITS offers healthy dating and relationship education to empower students to make positive life choices and avoid the negative consequences of risky behaviors. The interactive presentations will provide students with tools to help them navigate many of the challenges facing teens today and equip them for health, relationship, and life success.

The Teacher Agrees To:

- Schedule presentation as early in advance as possible
- Notify presenter if teacher will be absent
- Confirm date, time, location, and number of students one week in advance
- Inform presenter of any special accommodations needed for students (i.e. SSO, hearing impaired, etc.)
- Send out permission forms prior to first presentation
- Introduce presenter
- Remain in classroom during presentations
- Maintain discipline in classroom
- Expect students to display polite and courteous behavior
- Reinforce key concepts of presentation (after presentations)

WeldWAITS Presenter Agrees To:

- Provide free, customized presentations to meet the needs of the specific school or community organization
- Confirm audiovisual or other equipment needs
- Emphasize sexual risk avoidance (SRA) as the healthiest choice for optimal health outcomes
- Provide medically accurate, culturally relevant, and developmentally appropriate information that equips students with knowledge and skills needed for health, relationships, and life success
- Honor the diversity of the students and treat everyone with respect
- Incorporate hands-on, interactive activities into lessons
- Provide handouts and other educational materials, as needed
